Verse1
A                       E                   D
My whole life's been filled with songs and dreams
A               E                  D
When I was a child I had a time machine
Bm                                    E
Little did I know it would go too fast
Bm                                    D   C           A
Little did I know it could see the Future. (riff1)   But not the past
```

```
Verse2
A               E                  D
Leave it all behind Come what may
A                   E             D
Always thought I'd be comin' home someday
Bm                             E
Little did I know that life is hard
Bm                                  D   C            A
Here I am, now, starin' out a window (riff1)    In my own backyard
```

```
Chorus
G                   D           Em
Is there any comfort to be derived?
```

```
In knowin' that most of our lives
G                  D                       C
Can never be the same, Can never go back home
G                       D         Em
And those that count out lucky I guess
              C
Can somehow escape from this mess
G              D                 Bm    C
Me I can only do it in dreams and songs

A  |  E  |  D  2x

E|-------------------------------------------------------------------|

Verse3
A               E                  D
Tryna fill a hole while runnin' a race
A               E              D
Leave some even bigger empty space
Bm                                    E
But a movin' target is harder to kill
Bm                                D   C          A
Never was one for takin' the easy  (riff1)      I'm standin' still

G  |  D  |  C
G  |  D  |  Em  |  C
G  |  D  |  Bm C

Verse4
A               E            D
Nowadays I'm by myself again
A                   E              D
Throwin' stones and caution to the wind
Bm                                    E
Nothing's really changed but the scenery
Bm                        D   C                        A
Starin' into my child's eyes     I realize what it all means to me

Chorus
G                  D           Em
Is there any comfort to be derived?
                    C
In knowin' that most of our lives
```

```
G                  D                    C
Can never be the same, Can never go back home
